

805 Davenport Rd.,
Toronto, Ontario,
December 30, 1942.

Mr. Otto T. Mallery,
9006 Grefeld Street,
Chestnut Hill,
Philadelphia, Pa.,
U.S.A.

Dear Mr. Mallery:

Thank you for your kind letter regarding the "CBC Concert Hour" of Thursday, December the 17th.

The Beethoven violin Concerto in D Major was played by the internationally known Canadian violinist - Kathleen Parlow. The orchestra which consisted of members of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, was directed by Sir Ernest MacMillan.

We believe there are recordings made in England and available through H.M.V. - Victor.

Your kind comments will be relayed to the artists.

Yours faithfully,

John Adaskin
Programme Department
Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

308 Devonport St.,
Toronto, Ontario,
December 10, 1943.

Mr. Otto F. Kallert,
3000 Belsize Street,
Ottawa, Ont.
U.S.A.

Dear Mr. Kallert:

Thank you for your kind letter regarding the "Red Cross" letter of December 1, 1943.

The Red Cross is a major war agency.
The information about Canadian soldiers - killed in action,
the statistics which are sent to the Red Cross, and the statistics which are sent to the Red Cross, are sent to the Red Cross.

We believe there are no statistics in Canada and elsewhere which are sent to the Red Cross.

Your kind comments will be relayed to the artist.

Yours faithfully,

John Martin
Executive Director
Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.